

courses). Based on the student's performance at the end of the semester, the student shall:

1. Resume studies in Good Standing if s/he attains a CGPA of 70 or higher;
2. Continue at RHU on CAS if s/he attains a semester GPA of 75 or above;
3. Dismissed from RHU. The college shall inform the student and the concerned of the dismissal decision.

A student on critical academic standing shall be denied access to on-line registration and must register through the academic advisor.

Forced Change of Major

A student whose CGPA falls below 60 at the end of any semester after the first semester (12 credits at least) as a matriculated student must transfer to another program and shall not be allowed to return to the old program in the future.

Academic Conduct

RHU embraces the values of academic honesty and integrity and expects all to uphold strict ethical and professional standards. The University forbids any unauthorized use of the work of others. Acts of plagiarism or cheating on exams or other types of work submitted for assessment as part of a course grade shall risk possible disciplinary action. Please refer to the Conduct Policy section in this catalog.

RHU Student Taking Courses Elsewhere

Students formally enrolled at RHU may take up to 15 credits hours of courses at a recognized university within Lebanon accredited by the MoHE or at a university outside Lebanon accredited by the country's higher education authority subject to the following conditions:

- The student is registered at RHU
- The student has completed at least 30 credit hours at RHU
- The courses to be taken elsewhere are equivalent to courses required by the student's major
- The student receives prior approval of the courses to be taken from the student's department chairperson and college dean
